BETTER STUFF THAN FUNSTON

General Corbin Speaks Frigidly of the Kansas Fighter.

TELLS LONG HE'S ONLY A BOSS SCOUT

Not as Good as Some Lieutenants as Corbin Sees It Opposed to the Promotion that McKinley Speedily Grants.

WICHITA, Kan., April 5.—The Eagle tomorrow will publish an extended interview with Congressman Chester I. Long of Kansas relative to the appointment of Frederick Funston to a brigadier generalship in the regular army.

"Well, general, you see what Funston has done?" "Yes, I have seen it," replied Corbin, "not too pleasantly."

"Mr. Long," said Corbin, "I am making lieutenants out of better stuff than Funston every day. Funston is a boss scout—that's all."

"I want him made a brigadier general," I insisted.

"Mr. Long," said Corbin, "the army has become a great school. We want teachers for brigadier generals; we want men who can teach and not those to be taught."

"But the president may want to appoint him," I said.

"The president can do so, of course," said General Corbin, "but it is plain to be seen," adds Mr. Long, "that the president would never do it on the recommendation of General Corbin."
